Cooking Instructions:

1. 1
First, make the marinade paste by placing everything in a mortar and pestle and pulverizing until it forms a wet paste. Alternatively, this can be scaled up and done in a food processor (with the excess reserved for later use).
Rub the steak all over with the paste and sprinkle over extra Thai seasoning. Chill and leave for at least an hour to marinate (or preferably overnight).

3. 3

Heat a barbecue or grill over high heat.

4. 4

Cook the beef for 2 minutes on each side for rare, then leave to rest for 5 minutes. Slice thinly when ready to assemble.

5. 5

Slice the baguettes open, keeping a hinge intact on one side. Spread the butter wall to wall, then arrange with carrots, cucumber and beef slices on each one. Top each with hot chilli sauce, crispy shallots, garlic, chilli (if using) and garnish with fresh mint and coriander.

Tips:

1. 1

Use MasterFoods™ Professional French Dressing to lightly pickle the carrot and chilli ahead of time, giving extra brightness to the dish.

2. 2

Replace the steak with firm tofu or shredded chicken breast.

3. 3

Can also be turned into rice paper rolls and scaled up for functions
